Marian Kivila presents:
ESTONIAN SHORT FILM
"Linnud ja lindpriid"

1. MINNA HINT "JAILBIRD" (2010) 18'50
Documentaryfilm, where just birds speak-scream-sing, observes the journey of an Andalusian bird and bird-catcher from freedom to imprisonment and from there onward...

2. A NAGU ALFA (ANDRES LÕO) "RAUL VELBAUM"
Dokumentaal Raul Velbaumist (2001) 8'

3. REMO RANDVER "BLUE DIODES" 1'21 JA "I LIVE HERE" 2' (2010)
Lühifilmid moodustavad põlenud maja elemendi pooltest seeria inimesest ja ruumist, mahapõlenud majast ja selle anonüümsest elanikust. Apokalüptiline õhkkond loob psühheedeelse atmosfääri, mis seguneb klassikalise dokfilmiga ja muundub fiktsionaalseks ulmeks.

4. MARTIN SAAR "BIRD WATCH" 3'09 (2008)

5. RAOUL KURVITZA PERFOKADOKID

6. BIRK ROHELEND "STALKER" 13'42 (2009)
Psühhoootiline miniõudus/põnevusfilm, mis räägib armastusest, uudishimust, jälitamisest ja usaldamisest, mis ei jää karistuseta.

Yelena Popova (Russia/UK)
"UNNAMED"

Screening of the film and an artist's talk on the subject of Nuclear Utopia and the history of closed towns on the Eastern Side of the Iron Curtain.

UNNAMED is a short artist documentary (9min) unfolding a hidden history of a secret nuclear town in Russia. Constructed as a cinematic essay Unnamed presents a personal take on the history of the Cold War and the first nuclear disasters related to it.

Yelena Popova is a Russian born artist, based in Nottingham (UK). She works across many disciplines (film, painting, installation, performance, text) and deals with post-Communist utopias, socialist spaces and our modernist inheritance. This year Yelena was selected for New Contemporaries, 2011 at ICA in London and was awarded the prestigious Red Mansion award and residency in Beijing, China. Yelena's recent film 'Unnamed' unfolds the hidden nuclear history of a secret town in the Urals, Soviet Union. Yelena recently completed her MA Fine Art at Royal College of Art, London.
